the Lead of Wells formerly belonging thereunto, been imbezelled, sold or made away? In whose hands or Custody both the same, or any part thereof remain? Declare to what you know, or have heard herein.

III. Is there a Font of Stone, with a good Cover thereunto, standing in a convenient place towards the lower part of your Church, for the Administration of Baptism? And is there in your Chancel, a decent Communion Table, for the Administration of the Lords Supper; with a Carpet of Silk, or of fine Woollen-cloth, and another Covering of white and pure Linnen, to spread thereupon? And have you a fair Communion-Cup, or Chalice, with a Cover of silver; and one or more Flagons of silver, or pewter, thereunto belonging?

IV. HAVE you in your said Church, or Chappel, a convenient Seat, or Pew, for your Minister to read Divine Service in? A Pulpit, with a comely Cloth or Cushion for the same? A Bible, of the last Translation, in a large Volume, and the Book of Common Prayer, both well and substantially bound? Have you likewise the Book of Homilies, set forth by Authority? A Book of Canons and Constitutions Ecclesiastical? And a Printed Table of the Degrees, wherein Marriage is prohibited?

V. HAVE you a comely large Surplice for the Minister to wear, at all times of his Publick Administration, in the Church; provided, and to be duly washed at the Charge of the Parish?

VI. HAVE you a Register Book of Parchment, wherein to Register the Names and Surnames of all such persons as are Married, Christned, or Buried, within your Parish; together with the Names and Surnames of both the Parents of the Children so Christned, expressing the day, month, and year of all such Christnings, Marriages, and Burials? And is the transcript thereof yearly, within one Month next after the 25 of March, brought into the Bishops Registry?

VII. HAVE you likewise another Book or Paper, wherein to record the Names and Licences of all such Strangers as are admitted at any time to Preach in your Church or Chappel? And also a third Book wherein to write down the Church-wardens Accounts together with a strong Chest with Locks and Keys, wherein to keep the aforesaid Books, and all other the aforesaid and sundry things: And whether you have any at Biers, with a black Hearsecloth, for the Burial of the Dead: Is it further said, yet made of, 1607, 1610, 1613, 1616, and 1619: And is the most worth this, 1620, 1623,

VI. DO you against every Communion appointed in your Church or Chappel, provide a sufficient quantity of fine white Bread, and of good Wine, according to the number of Communicants?

VII. DO you cause all Strangers that preach in your Church or Chappel, to subscribe their names the same day in a Book provided for that purpose, together with the name of the Bishop that licensed them to preach in this Diocese? and do you permit no other to preach?

VIII. Have you (the Church-wardens and Wide-men) now sworn to give in a true answer unto all these Articles of Inquiry in all their several Titles, taken sufficient time to drabo up your presentments, and therein consulted with your Minister for his faithful assistance?

FOR know you assuredly, that as the true discharging of your Office is the chief means whereby publick Disorders, Sins, and Offences in your Parish may be reformed and punished: So if you wilfully refuse to present such crimes and faults as either you know to have been committed, or otherwise have heard of by publick fame; That in such cases, the Bishop and his Officers are to proceed against you, in their Ecclesiastical Courts, as in Cases of wilful Omission and Perjury.

B. PETERBOROUGH.

THE Curates of every Parish are desired to give in the names of such of the younger sort in their several Parishes, as by Examination in the Catechism they find capable of Confirmation, and to present them to the Bishop to be confirm'd, as there shall be opportunity.

Whereas in the late Act of Uniformity of publique Prayers, it is provided, That all Benefices now in the possession of any person who is not, or before the Feast of St. Bartholomew shall not be in holy Orders: The Bishop not willing to be wanting to the necessity of such whom it may concern, hath appointed an Ordination to be held the Sunday before the said Feast of St. Bartholomew at the Cathedral Church: Where such as shall at the Visitation give in their Names, and at a convenient time before the day of Ordination, present themselves to the Bishop to be examined, concerning their learning and other qualities requir'd by the Laws and Canons of the Church, and bringing with them a Testimonial of their honest, sober and peaceable Conversation, then, (God willing); being approved, may be admitted into holy Orders.
